

SOCIETY

The Week in Society.

Monday, January 4th.

Miss Amy Neal Hicks at Woman's Club at 4:30 P. M. Meeting of Stay-at-Home Whist Club with S. W. Travers, of West Franklin Street, at 8:15 P. M.

Tuesday, January 5th. Dances of Tuesday German Club in Masonic Temple, from 9 to 12 o'clock.

Wednesday, January 6th.

Misses Archer, of 101 North Sixth Street, at home from 5 to 7 P. M. "Twelfth Night" at Woman's Club at 8:30 o'clock. Reception in honor of Mrs. Rutherford Fleet by Mrs. George Ball Hutchins and Mrs. Graham Hobson at 23 North Laurel Street, from 5 to 7.

Thursday, January 7th.

Mrs. Swanson leaves for Washington, where she will be entertained by Mrs. Dunn and other friends.

Friday, January 8th.

Meeting of the Colonial Dames at 4 P. M. in Woman's Club.

Saturday, January 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel P. Morgan and Miss Morgan will be at home to their friends at 9 o'clock P. M., 111 East Franklin Street.

Attractive Christmas Cottillon.

One of the prettiest and most attractive cottillons of the Christmas season was given at the Hermitage Club house Thursday, December 31st, and was danced by the younger set, including Misses Mary Johnson, Jennie Warwick, Elizabeth Taylor, Cornelia Taylor, of Winston-Salem; Lucille Cullingsworth, Louie Johnston, Marie Sands, Cornelia Baggett, Jackfield, of Indianapolis; Harriet Buchanan, Emily Wade, Edith Donnan, Kate Eches, Nannie Smith, Katharine Sinton, Ella Wingfield, Ethel Boudar, Katharine Robinson, Rosalie Harwood, Addie Irvin, Dallas Lee and Martha Lefebvre, and Messrs. Robert Augustine, John Blair, Theron Brown, Sherwood Parsons, Edward Haynes, James Cecil, Jackson Chambers, Curry Fairly, Blair Pitts, Myrland Pitts, Edward Gwathmey, James Gwathmey, William Lefew, Raymond Massey, Rush Miller, Harry Quaries, Henry Taylor, Marbury Taylor, Charles Taylor, William Taylor, Myrland Wood, Walter Wren, McLean Whitte, James Patton, Stilly Perkins, Max Wadley, James Pennington, Wilbur

Sydnor, Taylor Seiden and Walter Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Robinson and Mrs. R. E. Magill and Mrs. Walter A. Williams were the chaperons.

Beautiful Reception.

A beautiful reception, closing a brilliant week in society, was given yesterday evening by Mr. and Mrs. S. Dabney Cranshaw, of No. 319 West Franklin Street, in honor of Miss Cranshaw, Miss Fanny Cranshaw and Miss Estelle Moore, the debutante niece of Mr. Thomas L. Moore, of No. 319 West Franklin Street. The Cranshaw home was beautifully decorated, palms, Southern smilax and Christmas evergreens throwing into brilliant relief the red of polka-dot, carnations and Richmond roses. Sprays of holly intermingled with palms and smilax and mistletoe suspended from doorways and chandeliers carried out the Christmas idea. Red and green candles in crystal and silver candelabra, red shaded lamps and red bells swinging from the evergreens added to the effectiveness of the color scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. Cranshaw received with Miss Cranshaw, Miss Fanny Cranshaw and Miss Moore. The Misses Cranshaw were director gowns of white lace over white satin, and Miss Moore was wish to keep up with the topics of the day.

All those interested are invited to be present on Tuesday.

In Honor of Guests.

Mrs. Swanson was at home yesterday from 5 to 7, in honor of her house guests, Mrs. and Miss Howry, of Washington; Mrs. E. Burd Grubb, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. John K. Otley, of Atlanta. About seventy-five friends were present.

The decorations of palms, roses and smilax were beautiful. Mrs. Swanson was gracious and agreeable as ever, and her guests made a charming impression on all who met them.

Mrs. Howry is recognized as a social leader in the national capital, and Miss Howry is one of the most admired of this season's debutantes. Mrs. Otley comes from one of the most progressive cities in the South, where she is prominent in matters social, patriotic and philanthropic.

Mrs. Burd Grubb is an Englishwoman by nationality, and was the beautiful Miss Violet Snowthorpe before her marriage some years ago to General Grubb, who at that time was United States minister to Spain. General and Mrs. Grubb have a lovely home near Philadelphia.

The wedding of Miss Clara Custis, daughter of Mrs. William Parke Custis, of No. 2001 Maryland Avenue, Baltimore, to Mr. Norman Hill will be celebrated in the home of the bride on January 21st. Mr. Hill is a son of Dr. Norman Hill, of No. 600 West Avenue.

St. John's Circle to Meet.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with Miss Nellie Payne, of the Virginia Home for Incurables. Each member will take some little delicacy for the inmates. A full attendance is requested.

Branch H. Allen Auxiliary.

The regular meeting of the Branch H. Allen Auxiliary, Home for Incurables, will be held in the annex of Murphy's Hotel on Tuesday morning, January 5th, at 11 o'clock. As this is the first meeting of the new year, there will be important business to attend to, and all members are urged to be present.

Blackburn—Ellis.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Ellis announce the marriage of their daughter, Mabel St. Clair, to Mr. Ernest Cayce Blackburn, of Richmond, Va., the ceremony having taken place Saturday, December 26th, in Washington, D. C. The Rev. Weston Bruner was the officiating minister. After January 4th Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn will be at home to their friends at No. 121 West Clay Street, this city.

In Honor of Miss Wingo.

Miss Helen Heinz was the hostess on New Year's Day of a charming luncheon at Murphy's Hotel, the honor guest being Miss Elizabeth Wingo, Council of Jewish Women.

The Council of Jewish Women will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:45, in the vestry room of Beth Alabab Temple. Reports from the delegates—Mrs. Edwin A. Ezekiel and Mrs. Samuel Cohen—to the triennial convention, held in Cincinnati December 8th, will be heard, and there will be music by Mrs. Clifton Miller. Following the program, there will be a social hour, and members are most cordially invited to bring their friends as guests of the council.

Personal Mention.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Kimball and children, of Battle Creek, Mich., have been spending the holidays with Mr. Kimball's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carter Osterberg, of No. 200 East Cary Street. Dr. and Mrs. Kimball will leave for their Western home this week.

Miss Helen Michael, of Sioux City, Iowa, who has been the holiday guest of Miss Imogen Riddick, was handsomely entertained on the afternoon and evening of December 30th, the evening entertainment being a card party.

Mrs. Hunter McGuire has had with her during the Christmas season Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gordon, of Savannah; Mr. and Mrs. Cary Russell Montague, of Lewisburg, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Davis, of Norfolk.

Mrs. E. L. Chalmers, of Salem, is improving steadily, though slowly, at Virginia Hospital.

Miss Mary McFadden, of Mary Baldwin Seminary, spent her Christmas vacation with Miss Hester Riddle, of South Street, Norfolk.

Miss Olive Tucker is the guest of friends at Holdcroft, Va.

Messrs. Gessner Harrison and F. J. McCarthy have been recent guests at Hotel Roanoke.

Misses Rountree and Miss Lucy Anderson are visiting Miss Isabel Richardson on Chestnut Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Thorstensen, of Salem, spent last week in Richmond.

Mr. Horace Powell has returned from Lynchburg, accompanied by his sister, Miss Goldie Powell, who will visit him for several weeks.

Mrs. Gentry and Miss Lula Hundley are guests of their sister, Mrs. J. H. Smith, of Salem.

Misses Alice and Charlotte Dammun have left for their home in Newport News, accompanied by Miss Bonnie Thomas, who will be the guest of Miss Alice Dammun.

The Misses Doswell, of the University of Virginia, are visiting in the home of Judge George L. Christian.

Mr. Howard Winston, who has been in Richmond for the past week, returned to the university yesterday.

Mr. Roscoe Spencer, of Richmond College, has been visiting relatives at West Point, Va.

Mr. Morris Langhorne has returned from Newport News, where he has been visiting friends.

Miss Andrey Jeter, who is the guest of friends in Salem, attended a cotillion given last week by Misses Louise and Elizabeth Pulliam, of Salem.

Miss Nanny Winston Blackley, of Louisville, Ky., who has been the guest of Mrs. Edward Byrd McGee on Hermitage Road, has been much entertained.

Special Values in Ostrich Plumes.

Kaufmann & Co.

New Neck fixings and Collars just received.

The Annual Year-End Clearing Sale

Is distinctly different from any other clearing sale in Richmond—different—because it offers the most astonishingly good values in wanted merchandise of every sort. All the odd lots—all the broken lines—all the small quantities of Winter Apparel for Women and Children, irrespective of actual value—everything has been re-marked for the Year-End Clearing Sale at a low price bound to attract the carefulest and most economical shopper.

From Our Garment Section

$25.00 SATIN $18.50
Costumes, $18.50

Here are but a very few of the many Dresses shown.

$30.00 Satin $25.00
Gown now - - $25.00

$25.00 Panama $18.50
Dress now - - $18.50

$40.00 Silk $30.00
Dress now - - $30.00

$35 Broadcloth $30.00
Dress now - - $30.00

$25.00 Satin $20.00
Dress now - - $20.00

Coats Reduced

Our special offering for this week will be a sale of $15.00 and $16.50

WOMEN'S COATS AT

$10

These are made of good broadcloth, cheviot and fancy mixtures.

Better grades of Coats have been also sharply reduced.

$27.50 & $25 $20.00
Suits, $20.00

You'd better do a little investigating of these Suits we're making a special sale of.

You can well afford to have an extra Suit or two at this price. They are very classy Suits. The smartest and most distinguished style is characteristic of them.

CLASS I—Includes Suits valued at $27.50 and $25.00; now...

CLASS II—Includes Suits valued at $25.00 and $20.00; now...

$20.00

$15.00

We consider this a rare opportunity for our customers to get the finest garments made at much less than their real value.

Excellent Models

Now

$17.50 & $12.50

Children's Coats

Reductions Exceptionally Low

We briefly mention only several items:

$7.50 Broadcloth Coat, red, now...	$5.00
$7.50 Chinella Coat, red, now...	$5.00
$5.00 Broadcloth Coat, red, now...	$3.98
$5.50 Broadcloth Coat now...	$3.98
$5.98 Bearskin Coat now...	$3.00
$3.50 Bearskin Coats now...	$2.50
$6.75 Extra Fine Fancy Coats now...	$3.75

Flannelette Kimonos

Prices Reduced for Quick Clearance

Owing to the fact that we never carry over these garments to another season, we reduced each one. All are as perfect as though sold for regular price.

$2.50 Kimonos Now	Pretty designs and colors are here to choose from. They are cut extremely full.	$2.98 & $3.50 Kimonos
$1.75		$2.50

Grand Sale Square Pianos

A stirring, money-saving sale of Modern Square Pianos, of best makes and in perfect condition.

It's a policy of our house to sell our Squares and Uprights in separate sales. To clear our house of Square Pianos we offer the following:

1 WAGNER PIANO, rosewood case, 7 octaves, in splendid condition, to go at $20.00

1 WORCESTER PIANO, rosewood case, 7 octaves, in splendid condition, to go at $38.00

1 KNABE PIANO, overstrung bass, 7 octaves, in thorough repair, only $60.00

1 GUILFORD PIANO, overstrung bass, 7 octaves, in ideal shape, cut to only $80.00

1 DUNHAM PIANO, rosewood case, 7 octaves, in good condition, price only $85.00

1 DUNHAM PIANO, full size, overstrung bass, modern, carved legs, 7-1/2 octaves, price only $92.50

1 PRASE PIANO, rosewood case, 7 octaves, overstrung bass, 7-1/2 octaves, cut to only $89.50

1 STILETT PIANO, rosewood case, overstrung bass, 7-1/2 octaves, cut to only $95.00

1 Bluthner Grand Piano

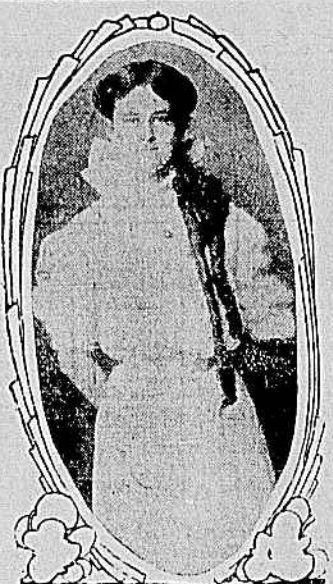

Mahogany case, perfect condition, the Piano for a teacher; original cost, $350; cut to $295

Also, 1 KNABE PIANO, modern, carved legs, full size. You must see it to appreciate it.

Remember, that you can arrange easy monthly payments if you prefer. Write us.

Walter D. Moses & Co.

103 East Broad Street, OLDEST MUSIC HOUSE IN VIRGINIA

MISS ANNIE LUCILLE CAMPBELL, an attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Campbell, of King William county, Va.

In pale blue hand-embroidered chiffon over silk. The receiving line was assisted by Miss Rachel Urquhart, Miss Anita Cussens, Miss Henrietta Runyon, Miss Edith O'Keefe, Miss Bessie Stearnes, Miss Elizabeth Wheat and Miss Mary Hart Cranshaw.

All the four hundred of Richmond called, enjoyed the fine flavor of cordial hospitality dispensed by Mr. and Mrs. Cranshaw, and welcomed the debutantes of the evening, Miss Fanny Cranshaw and Miss Moore, to their place in Richmond society.

Entertained Bridge Club. Misses Ellen and Sue Danner, at 219 East Grace Street, entertained the Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon.

The members present were Mrs. Miller McCue, Mrs. Evan Chesterman, Mrs. W. P. Wood, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. Bragg, Misses Susie Davis, Katherine Edwards, Agnes Edwards, Irene Bosseux, Ellen Danner and Sue Danner.

The guests of honor were Miss Lolla Langley and Mrs. Fontaine Malwood, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Frazier, of New York; Mrs. Rucker, of Warrenton, Va.; and Mrs. Crockett.

At Woman's Club. Miss Amy Neal Hicks, of New York, who comes with an enviable reputation as an artist and a lecturer, will address the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon at 4:30 on "The Meaning of Art Culture." Miss Hicks will spend a few days in Richmond as the guest of Miss Elizabeth Patterson, chairman of the art committee.

The meeting of the Literary Round Table will be held at the club on Wednesday evening instead of in the afternoon, as usual, and the chairman of the evening will celebrate "Twelfth Night" by a program introducing a series of songs and tableaux illustrative of old Christmas.

Mrs. Clifton M. Miller and Mrs. Thomas Whitte will be the vocalists of the evening, and the tableaux scenes will be enacted by a number of young society girls and boys.

The ceremony of cutting the "Twelfth Night" cake and the crowning of the lucky finders of the beans at the end of the evening will be a prominent feature of the occasion, which will be rendered as merry as possible.

Class in Current Events.

The first regular meeting of Miss Annie Mager Winston's Class in Current Events will be held in a club audience room on Tuesday, January 5th, at noon. This class promises to be most interesting, and will be especially valuable to busy women who Removal Sale.

We must vacate in a few days.

Shoes at Cost

Except Patrician Shoes.

SeymourSycle

Corner Seventh and Broad.

Greatest Display and Sale of Mid-Winter Flowers

This time of the year when your Hat does not look very fresh and you cannot invest in the "second one," this is a golden opportunity to touch up your Hat with a beautiful rose or some other flower at very unusually low price. You will derive the same style and effect as if you had secured a new hat. Besides, you will be safe-guarded by the fashion dictations for the late winter: "Flowers should be used for trimming."

Large Single Rose, in silk and velvet, in fancy colors, sold at 33c; special.

Three in the Bunch Rose, in fancy colors; regular 75c value, for 39c

Extra Large Rose, silk and velvet, fancy colors; 85c value, for 48c

McCarthy have been recent guests at Hotel Roanoke.

Misses Rountree and Miss Lucy Anderson are visiting Miss Isabel Richardson on Chestnut Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Thorstensen, of Salem, spent last week in Richmond.

Mr. Horace Powell has returned from Lynchburg, accompanied by his sister, Miss Goldie Powell, who will visit him for several weeks.

Mrs. Gentry and Miss Lula Hundley are guests of their sister, Mrs. J. H. Smith, of Salem.

Misses Alice and Charlotte Dammun have left for their home in Newport News, accompanied by Miss Bonnie Thomas, who will be the guest of Miss Alice Dammun.

The Misses Doswell, of the University of Virginia, are visiting in the home of Judge George L. Christian.

Mr. Howard Winston, who has been in Richmond for the past week, returned to the university yesterday.

Mr. Roscoe Spencer, of Richmond College, has been visiting relatives at West Point, Va.

Mr. Morris Langhorne has returned from Newport News, where he has been visiting friends.

Miss Andrey Jeter, who is the guest of friends in Salem, attended a cotillion given last week by Misses Louise and Elizabeth Pulliam, of Salem.

Miss Nanny Winston Blackley, of Louisville, Ky., who has been the guest of Mrs. Edward Byrd McGee on Hermitage Road, has been much entertained.

Royster, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Turner, of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Thomas M. Ashe, Mr. William Jones, of Norfolk, and Mr. and Mrs. William Royal.

The last social event in the Governor's Mansion during the occupancy of the family of Governor Glenn was on Monday evening, when Miss Annie Dodge Glenn, niece of the Governor, entertained in honor of Miss Barber, of Wilkesboro.

The guests were Misses Brown, Miss Daisy Haywood, Agnes Lacy, Julia West, Lucretia Roberts, Bessie Russ, Mildred Holding, Elizabeth Johnson, Norma Wynne, Katharine Bernard, Emma Uzzell, Margaret Rogers, Alice Woolcott, Patsy Smith, Elizabeth Thompson, Louise Womble, Margaret Habel, Messrs. Joe Boushall, William Bailey, Joe Mackay, Jack Harris, Wade Galant, Harry Hill, Pete Harris, William Holding, Arthur Holding, Hubert Holding, William Joyner, Elmer Broughton, Melver Allen, Sam Smith, Sam Sanders, Fleming Sherwood, Charles Newcomb.

"Trust Oak," near Wako Forest, the Jones country place, was the scene the past week of the most notable house party in a great while, Mrs. Jas. H. Poy and Mrs. E. B. Moffit were the chaperons. In the party were Misses Nannie Hay, Edith Poy, Juliette Crowe, Lina Washington Crowe, of Durham; Alana Smith, of Baltimore; Josephine Oliver, of Wynewille; Swannanoa Horne, of Clayton; Grace Rogers, of Georgia; Isabelle Simmons, of Washington, D. C.; Messrs. Howell Smith, Hugh Thompson, Burke Haywood, Jesse Primrose, James Joyner, James Thomas, Shell and Craig Jones, Dr. Lewis Peggam, of Duke, N. C.

The members of Kentness Club, as the guests of Miss Mary Armistead Jones on Thursday afternoon, celebrated the tenth anniversary of the organization of the club.

Mrs. Herbert Jackson was the hostess this week for the Johnsonian Club. Mrs. Ed. Chambers Smith and Mrs. V. E. Turner read papers of special interest. Special guests, other than the fifteen members of the club, were Miss Florence Slater, New York; Mrs. A. W. Bagley, Washington; Mrs. Charles Turner, of Pennsylvania. The club is to two weeks hence hold a "back evening" of music, as the guests of Mrs. William J. Andrews.

The Misses Cause have issued invitations for an elaborate card party at the Cause household, Hardmont plantation, next Tuesday, January 6th.

Mrs. William J. Andrews has issued invitations for a card party next Thursday in honor of Mrs. A. B. Andrews, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Warren have reached the city from their bridal trip. They were married in Richmond, Christmas Day. Mr. Warren is connected with Simpson's drug store. His bride was Miss Annie Martin, of Durham.

Thursday evening Mrs. J. B. Pearce received in honor of Miss Annie Bailey Jones.

Miss Josephine Ashe is spending a few days with relatives in Wilmington.

Miss Annie Travis is here from Weldon, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Day.

Miss Suzanne Crow spent the week with the Misses Lacy out at Kilbrook, the country home of Hon. B. R. Lacy, State Treasurer.

Mrs. J. P. Arrington and daughters, Misses Maudie and Mary, went to Rocky Mount this week to attend the marriage of Miss Louise Arrington and Mr. Arthur Dowling, of Winston-Salem.

High Point Social News. HIGH POINT, N. C., January 2.—Tuesday night at the Elwood Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Cox and daughter, Miss Clara, entertained. From 8 to 11 were the hours. The guests were welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Bradshaw. In the reception hall Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cox received. In the parlor Dr. and Mrs. Drou Feacock did the receiving, and in the dining-room Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris received.

Prof. L. M. H. Reynolds, of the North Carolina Savings Bank and Trust Company, in Philadelphia to attend a reunion of the alumni of Haverford College.

Miss Louise Rector, of Asheville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rector at the Elwood Hotel.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of J. C. F. Fitch.

Cut Flowers, Tropical Plants, Bouquets and Designs

Delivered anywhere always promptly.

Mann & Brown, Florists,

No. 5 West Broad Street, Richmond, Va.

Decorations of any kind.